This matter is before the Court on the Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice and Affidavit (the “Motion,” Doc. 3) filed by Derrick R. Bailey. The Motion indicates that Mr. Bailey, a member in good standing of the Bar of this Court, is local counsel for Danny Gouge, and that he seeks the admission of F. Braxton Terry, who the Motion represents as being a member in good standing of the Bar of the State of Tennessee. It further appears that the requisite admission fee has been paid.

The Motion also indicates that Mr. Bailey has not conferred with counsel for Defendants regarding the Motion because Defendants have not yet appeared in this action.

Seeing no facial defect in the Motion, the undersigned will grant the request. Any defendant may, however, request that the admission of F.

Braxton Terry be reconsidered, after that defendant has appeared in this matter. Any such request for reconsideration should be supported by specific objections to the instant pro hac vice admission.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice and Affidavit (Doc. 3) is GRANTED, and F. Braxton Terry is ADMITTED to practice pro hac vice before the Court in this matter while associated with local counsel.
2. This ruling is WITHOUT PREJUDICE to any Defendant's right to challenge Mr. Terry's admission, provided that any such motion is filed within fourteen days of that Defendant's appearance in this matter and is appropriately supported.

Signed: March 8, 2022

W. Carleton Metcalf
United States Magistrate Judge
